

FEMA

Sharing Information
Enhancing Preparedness
Strengthening Homeland Security

Lessons Learned
Information Sharing
LLIS.gov

Lessons Learned Information Sharing:

The national, online network of lessons learned, best practices, and innovative ideas for the emergency management and homeland security communities

A TOOL FOR ENHANCING NATIONAL PREPAREDNESS

Lessons Learned Information Sharing (LLIS.gov) is a U.S. Department of Homeland Security/Federal Emergency Management Agency program. This information and collaboration resource helps first responders, emergency managers, and homeland security officials prepare for, protect against, respond to, recover from, and mitigate terrorist attacks, natural disasters, and other emergencies. LLIS.gov provides Federal, State, and local officials from all disciplines with a wealth of information and front-line expertise on effective planning, training, and operational practices.

LLIS.gov is a free and password-protected resource that facilitates information sharing to improve national preparedness. Register at www.llis.gov.

ONE-STOP DOCUMENT RESOURCE

LLIS.gov is a one-stop resource for the most current homeland security and emergency management-related information. This comprehensive library contains documents that cover all hazards, all disciplines, and all levels of government and the whole community.

- Full plans, templates, after-action reports, articles, guidelines, best practices, and other documents
- Short summaries, exclusive to LLIS.gov, highlighting best practices or innovative ideas submitted by members that could work in other jurisdictions
- Subscription-only email update that lists new documents within particular discipline and topic areas

LLIS.gov COLLABORATION TOOLS

LLIS.gov provides collaboration and networking tools to enable members to speak directly to others involved in emergency management. Through this direct collaboration, members can benefit from each other's experience and institutional knowledge. These LLIS.gov tools include:

- Member Directory. Find peers and develop connections through the Member Directory.
- Channels. Establish secure topic- or community-specific Channels to share documents and facilitate communication among group members.
- Message Boards. Ask questions of the entire LLIS.gov community or respond to other questions to share experiences and knowledge.
- Secure Messaging. Send email-style messages to other members with the confidence that all text and attachments are protected by LLIS.gov's 128-bit encryption security.
- Submit to LLIS.gov. Offer new documents, ideas, expertise, or feedback to improve LLIS.gov.

LLIS.gov at a Glance

- Online since April 19, 2004
- Over 19,000 documents, including state and local plans, after-action reports, and exclusive lessons learned
- Secure community Channels, forums, messaging, and other collaboration and networking tools
- Targeted information on homeland security and emergency management topics

For more information on LLIS.gov or to register, please visit www.llis.gov.

LLIS.gov is a Department of Homeland Security/Federal Emergency Management Agency program and is supported by SAIC. For more information, please contact the LLIS.gov Help Desk at 866.276.7001 or Feedback@llis.dhs.gov.